

Bausch and Strobel Semi Automatic Powder Filler Model WPM 3070

The machine is designed for filling containers with products in powder form. The machine output is variable and is dependable on the shape and size of containers being filled also the characteristics of the product.

The containers are filled by a powder dosing unit.

The pouches to be processed are placed on a special stand and filled.

The machine is fitted with the following equipment:

Scales

Separate table for the scales

Foot switch

Data logging (data output via external hardware)

Printer

Dust Extractor

Trough conveyor with auxiliary compressed air

Year of manufacture: 1998

Two available

Telephone: 01202 870890

www.westpharmaservices.co.uk